Convention Delegates Chosen by Clubwomen

Plans are fast taking shape for the tenth Biennial Convention of the National Federation of Business and Professional Women's Clubs, Incorporated to be held in San Francisco July 3-7, inclusive. Approximately 5000 delegates and members have already signified their intentions to attend. The convention theme is "Turn the Tide at the Turn of the Century."

Miss Verna Porter, president of the local club, will attend as delegate and Mrs. Anna Sandstrom, finance chairman, is also planning to attend as alternate.

The next regular dinner meeting of the Torrance National Business and Professional Women's Club will be held Monday in the Persian Room, Wilmington, at 7 o'clock, with Mrs. Minnie Brooks and Miss Blanche Bowman as hostesses. Anyone desiring to attend please phone either hostess by June 16, after which no cancellations will be accepted. Guests are welcome. An interesting evening is being planned. There will be a drawing of names for "Whosits," the secret pals of the club members.

SHOWER HONORS MATRON

Complimenting Mrs. Donald Richards of 1326 1/2 Engracia avenue, her sister-in-law, Mrs. Judson Speer entertained recently at luncheon and a shower in her Los Angeles home.

Baby shower games occupied the group until the presentation of attractive and useful gifts for the Richards' heir to be.

Luncheon tables, set in the patio, were marked for the honor guest and Mesdames Robert Moffitt, Frank Forester, Frank Kristufek, and Clinton Cooke, all of Torrance, and others.

sweet peas and roses. The bridesmaids, Miss Joan Pedersen of Lomita and Miss Alpha Strempeke of Torrance chose replicas of the honor attendant's gown and their flowers were pink carnations and sweet peas. Little Rebecca Wenske, niece of the bridegroom, was flower girl in a dainty pink-organza frock.

Mr. Alvin Wenske of Clay Center, Nebraska, attended his brother as best man and ushers were Andy Miller of Canoga Park, brother of the bride and John Schwartz of this city.

Proceeding the ceremony Mrs. Joe Bay, church organist, played the accompaniment for Mr. Charles Bartholomew, who sang "Because," "O Promise Me" and "The Lord's Prayer."

At the reception in guild hall, which immediately followed, Mrs. C. Earl Conner served the tiered, decorated cake and Mrs. W. Hauck presided at the punch bowl. Mrs. Alvin Wenske assisted with registration of guests. Subsequently Mr. and Mrs. Wenske left for a honeymoon trip to Santa Barbara and Yosemite National Park. They are receiving their friends at 1020 Cravens avenue.

The bride was graduated from Greensburg High School, Ohio, and Compton Junior College, where she majored in interior decoration. She has been employed at the Lomita branch of Pacific Telegraph and Telephone Company. Mr. Wenske is employed with Metacalad Insulation Company here. During the war he served as an Army assistant chaplain.

Gantt, John Maberg and William LaVally.

Mrs. Paul Findley, church organist, played the accompaniment for Mervin Griffin, who sang "Because" and "The Lord's Prayer."

A reception in guild hall under the direction of Mrs. Alice Spegeher, immediately followed the church ceremony. A four-tiered wedding cake was served by Mrs. William Ralls of Inglewood and Mrs. Vernon Arnold, also of Inglewood, poured. Miss Ann Marie Bishop presided at the punch bowl and Miss Betty Hawkins was custodian of the guest book.

Mrs. Arcq received her guests in a beige afternoon dress, with rose and beige accessories, complemented by a corsage of pink roses. Mrs. Bowers attended her son's wedding in a powder blue afternoon dress with accessories of navy blue and rose, and a gardenia corsage.

Upon their return from a honeymoon at Laguna Beach and San Diego, Mr. and Mrs. Bowers will be at home in Torrance.

Mrs. Bowers was graduated from Torrance High School with the class of 1949, and has been attending California College of Commerce in Long Beach. Her bridegroom is an employee of Safeway Stores in Redondo Beach.

INSTALLATION MARKS 186th PTA MEETING

The June meeting of 186th Street PTA was held Thursday afternoon at the school when officers for next year were installed by Mrs. J. J. Millard of Tenth District executive board. They were: Mmes. Samuel Dow, president; J. A. DeJaifre, first vice president; Dorothy Saunders, second vice president; Robert Ward, secretary; Arden Clemison, treasurer; Ernest Tanner, auditor; James Holdcroft, historian; and Evelyn Gauley, parliamentarian.

Mrs. Samuel Dow, president, presented the past year's board members with hand-made remembrances.

A group of school children gave skits on "Safety" in the inspirational, and Joseph Littlefield, a teacher, explained plans for Summer Playground at the school. Mrs. Evelyn Gauley, welfare chairman, reported on meetings she had attended this year. Mrs. Oliver Lang read the PTA History for the year, and Mrs. J. W. Hight presented Mrs. Dow with the publicity book.

Evening Party Honors New Principal, Wife

Fern Avenue School personnel were hosts when they entertained recently at Higgins Brick-pit at a dinner given to welcome their new principal, Ronald C. Henderson, and Mrs. Henderson. Canasta play followed the informal meal and duets sung by Barbara Stiers and Lloyd Jones, whose accompanist was Emily Young, were enthusiastically received. A humorous skit by Bill Lewis and community singing led by Lloyd Jones concluded the enjoyable affair.

Present, in addition to the honor guests, were Robert R. Dexter, Howard M. Huizing, Lloyd G. Jones, Victor U. Killburn, William B. Lewis, Jr., Ronald J. Menquir, Cecil A. Smith, William W. Stiers, J. Del Thomas, Carroll E. Wright, E. V. Hansen; Mesdames Joseph S. Balloch, Al W. Gardner, Floy D. Boland, Emily S. Young, Helen C. Selover; Misses Marilyn Anderson, Cathryn M. Chisholm, Maxine Hoyle, Katherine E. Kenetta, and Mr. Al Watrin.
